

“Protect and Serve” (AI generated)

[Verse] Stackin' papers, briefs bound tight, every day a hustle,
Courtroom battles, verbal fights, flexin' legal muscle.
Ink on contracts, patents all secured,
Clients' dreams, I guard the cure, future reassured.

[Verse 2] Appropriation creeps, counterfeiters beware,
My pen sharp as a sword, son, I handle with care.
Infringement on my radar, don't think I'll ignore,
Subpoenas like a gang, kickin' down your door.

[Chorus] Man in a suit, ties tight, vigilante of the law,
Protect the rights, probate fights, I draw the claws.
Defendin' IP, trademarks locked in vaults,
Critics can't faze me, every win exalts.

[Verse 3] Blueprints of innovation, every stroke precise,
Defendin' every claim, wordplay razor-ice.
Drafting them motions, citations in tow,
Clients in the room, victory they know.

[Bridge] Boardrooms to courtrooms, traverse with ease,
Contracts signed, seal the deal, lock down fees.
Technological marvels, artists' grand designs,
Patents in my grip, protectin' those lines.

[Verse 4] Opposition claimin', they step outta line,
My submissions smack hard, disarray confined.
Trademarks in dispute, I zone like Pat Riley,
Wave the papers high, defend ferociously, slyly.
